

REMARKS

Claim 2 is amended to clarify that the subunguicide is inserted between the hyponychium and the nail plate, past the hyponychium, and resides in contact with the nail plate. The claim presented after the final rejection did not recite both anatomical elements (hyponychium and nail plate) between which the subunguicide is pushed. No new matter is added.